

Vocabulary for all competitive exams- 20/07/2019

1. Enchanting: (adjective) charming

Synonyms: delightful, dazzling

Antonyms: repulsive, offensive

Example sentence: The view of the city from his 10th floor apartment is really enchanting.

2. Uncouth: (adjective) uncivilised

Synonyms: uncultured, uncultivated

Antonyms: refined, cultivated

Example sentence: He is uncouth, rude and drunk most of the time.

3. Astute: (adjective) intelligent

Synonyms: sharp-witted, brilliant

Antonyms: naïve, ingenuous

Example sentence: He is an astute businessman that is why he is progressing by leaps and bounds.

4. Candid: (adjective) frank

Synonyms: free-spoken, openhearted

Antonyms: reserved, restrained

Example sentence: Hearing the news of his friend's success, his response was remarkably candid.

5. Diabolical: (adjective) baleful

Synonyms: devilish, infernal

Antonyms: heavenly, celestial

Example sentence: They gathered around in a conference room working out diabolical plans to prevent her from selling books.

6. Docile: (adjective) submissive
Synonyms: gentle, meek
Antonyms: obstinate, stubborn

Example sentence: The woman we met there was docile and all silent.

7. Doldrums: (noun) depression
Synonyms: gloom, melancholy
Antonyms: glee, joy

Example sentence: The share market has been in the doldrums since last two days.

8. Consensus: (noun) a general agreement
Synonyms: unanimity, agreement
Antonyms: discord, disagreement

Example sentence: In general, the learned consensus dubbed the whole business with indifference.

9. Fabricate: (verb) invent something in order to deceive
Synonyms: formulate, fake
Antonyms: ruin, wreck

Example sentence: She was accused of fabricating data.

10. Fatal: (adjective) something causing death
Synonyms: deadly, lethal
Antonyms: helpful, harmless

Example sentence: Her husband died in a fatal accident.